

East Cleveland City Schools G.E. D. Program

Mission Statement

We will provide the children of East Cleveland with the academic and life skills needed for each and everyone to be a success in the 21st century.

Vision

The East Cleveland City School District will emerge as a District of EXCELLENCE!

Current Offering

The East Cleveland City School District offers G.E.D. preparation for the adult population. Our program will provide educational opportunities for adults who are in need of enhancing their academic skills for effective citizenship, further education or productive employment. The East Cleveland G.E.D. program will provide academic support with Mathematics, reasoning through Language Arts, Science, and Social Studies in preparing our adults.

Financial Aid Information

The Ohio Department of Education will provide up to an $80 voucher towards your testing fee for those who register and are first time 2014 Computer Based GED test takers. To be eligible to receive the voucher, participants must contact the East Cleveland City School District for career and educational guidance prior to scheduling and paying for the 2014 Computer Based GED test. The purpose of this career and educational guidance is to provide information about additional career and educational programming to help participants to transition into postsecondary education, training, and employment.

The following chart provides the voucher amounts, which you can use for the entire GED test or each subject area.

GED Test Subject Areas	Voucher Value	Test Taker Responsibility
All Subject Areas	$80	$40
Individual Test Subject Area	Voucher Value	Test Taker Responsibility
Math	$20	$10
Reasoning Through Language Arts	$20	$10
Science	$20	$10
Social Studies	$20	$10

You can only use an Ohio Department of Education voucher for your first attempt in each subject area. If you must retake a subject area, you will only be allowed to retake each subject area twice at a cost of $10 per subject area. If you have additional questions, please contact the Ohio Department of Education at (614) 466-1577.
