

CURRICULUM NIGHT / PARENT TEACHER MEETING NIGHT

Curriculum Night/Parent Teacher Meeting Night is an annual event in which teachers are given an opportunity to communicate with parents about the key components of the elementary school program. Since this is often the first contact a parent has with the school, it is important that the entire staff present a positive, professional image. Some of the items, which are ingredients to creating this professional climate, area

- 1. A clear presentation of your curriculum including your goals, expectations, and homework policy.
- 2. A display of the materials (text, supplemental materials, etc.) used in your class.
- 3. Bulletin boards, relating to the subject area, should contain examples of student work.
- 4. A neat attractive room.
- 5. A signup sheet for future conferences will help parents to understand that open house/parent teacher meeting night is not an individual conference period.
- 6. A request that parents reinforces school and individual goals.
- 7. An opportunity for parents to provide input and to ask questions.

Parents expressing concerns which are not relevant to the purpose of open house/parent teacher meeting night Should be requested to make future conference appointment or should be directed to the administration.
