

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE TECHNOLOGY – Students in this is course will acquire the skills that will enable them to transfer ideas into a readable form using computers, printers, scanners, keyboarding, software, and programming. The students successfully completing this class will receive graduation credit for their required computer class.