

PATIENT CARE TECHNICIAN – Includes courses Patient Centered Care and Diagnostic Medical Terminology which provides students with the skills necessary to meet the employment needs of nursing homes, hospitals, long term care facilities, laboratories, and clinics where basic bedside nursing skills are required. The students in this program are required to complete on-site clinical experiences at a long-term care facility. Students successfully completing the program are eligible to receive articulated college credits upon graduation and a certification for Phlebotomy.