

PRIVATE SECURITY – Includes courses on Investigations/Forensics in Criminal Investigations and Security/Protective Services where students are introduced via business, industry, and technology standards, to the concepts of physical and personal security, internal loss and facility access. Upon successful completion of this course and passage of the state examination, an Ohio Peace Officer's Training Academy, Private Security certification will be issued. Our students are eligible for articulated college credits upon graduation.